

Report of Inauguration of Accountancy Museum at BKBCK

10th February 2024

Departments of Accountancy & Commerce in association with WIRC of ICAI and Birla College Alumni Association organized an inaugural program of the Accountancy Museum on 10th February, 2024 at NR 102, BKBCK.

It marked a significant milestone in the preservation and celebration of the history and evolution of accounting heritages.

The program commenced with the inauguration of the Accountancy Museum at the gracious hands of CA O. R. Chitlange, Chairman, Governing Council, BKBCK, BKBPS and BKBNC.

CA Parag Prabhudesai, Chairman Kalyan Dombivali Branch of WIRC of ICAI, CA Vipul Shah, Convener, Kalyan CPE Study Circle, CA M.D. Bapat, Former Vice Principal (Faculty of Commerce), other CA professionals, colleagues from the departments, and students witnessed this momentous occasion.

Dr. Lakshita Soni, HoD, Department of Accountancy welcomed Chief Guest, and all the Dignitaries from ICAI while expressing her gratitude to all those involved in bringing the museum to fruition and emphasizing the importance of preserving the heritage of Accountancy. She also highlighted that, with the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, the museum will serve as a valuable source of information for all college students, breaking down the traditional boundaries of faculty distinctions.

CA O. R. Chitlange, Chairman, Governing Council, BKBCK, BKBPS and BKBNC addressed the gathering and shared his happiness on the occasion. He mentioned that the Accountancy Museum will serve as a hub for education, research, and inspiration and will ensure that the legacy of accounting continues to be preserved and celebrated for generations to come.

CA Parag Prabhudesai, Chairman Kalyan Dombivali Branch of WIRC of ICAI also addressed the gathering with the valuable contribution of ICAI in academic growth and development. He appreciated efforts put in by college management, administration, and faculty members for keeping an active association with ICAI.

CA Ankit Agrawal, Chairman, Bhiwandi Branch of WIRC of ICAI, shared his valuable thoughts on the Accountancy Museum and happily praised the initiative of the college to install this museum.

All the dignitaries emphasized the role of accounting in driving economic development and fostering transparency and accountability in financial reporting. 102 students and many faculty members from the college attended this program.

Dr. Lakshita Soni proposed vote of thanks expressing gratitude towards Management for their unwavering support in all the endeavors of the departments. She also thanked ICAI for sharing the accountancy treasure with the college. She also mentioned the constant guidance and support of Dr. Nareshchandra, Director (Education) and Principal Dr. Avinash Patil in translating the vision of setting up of Accountancy Museum at BKBCK to reality. The Program concluded with a group picture with the Dignitaries and Faculty Members from the Departments of Accountancy and Commerce.
